

Unit Election Ceremony - 2019

OA Member A:

Fellow Scouts, the Order of the Arrow is Scouting's National Honor Society. Its purpose is to recognize and honor those campers who best live up to the Scout Oath and Scout Law in their daily lives, and to guide them in expanding the service that has made them outstanding. The Order promotes Scout camping and maintains camping traditions and spirit. It emphasizes that the good Scout camper is not only skilled in Scoutcraft, but also true to the ideals of Scouting and its tradition of the daily Good Turn.

The only way that a Scout can become a member of the Order of the Arrow is to be elected for this honor by the members of the Scout's unit.

For elections at Scout Troops:

To be eligible for election, a youth must fulfill the camping requirement, hold the First Class rank and be approved by the Scoutmaster in advance of the election.

For elections at Sea Scout Ships:

To be eligible for election, a youth must fulfill the camping requirement, hold the Sea Scout Ordinary rank or higher and be approved by the Sea Scout Skipper in advance of the election.

For elections at Venture Crews:

To be eligible for election, a youth must fulfill the camping requirement, hold the Venturing Discovery Award and be approved by the Crew Advisor in advance of the election.

After being elected, the Scout must complete the Ordeal, which is a series of tests of sincere dedication to the high ideals of Scouting and the Order. If faithful in completing the task, the Scout takes a solemn pledge of service and is admitted into the Order. A long period of self-improvement and service then follows.

The lodge flap, universal arrow ribbon, and the distinctive sash identify the Order of the Arrow member. They are symbols of service. Our lodge has its own activities and projects, but our program does not replace the member's responsibility to the home unit. Indeed, each OA Member is expected to give richer service in the home unit in return for the honor the unit extended to the Scout.

American Indian lore is an attractive sideline in our Order. American Indian dances and ceremonies add color to our program of service, and members often make American Indian lore their hobby. However, one does not need American Indian attire or skill in American Indian lore to become a valuable member of the Order of the Arrow.

To highlight the details about the Order of the Arrow, we will now play this video which outlines the background of the Order and the process that we will follow to elect members to the Order.

OA Member A:

Scouts, you will elect representatives to our brotherhood of cheerful service, and we are here to assist you in the election. All registered active member of this unit, except those 21 or older, are entitled to vote.

All those who receive votes from at least half of those who turn in ballots are elected. The number of candidates you elect will depend on how your votes agree with votes of other members of your unit.

Remember that an Order of the Arrow election is not a popularity contest! Don't vote for a Scout just because that Scout is your friend or just because that Scout is a good athlete or because that Scout is older than the rest. What really counts is that Scout's loyalty to the Scout Oath and Law.

Campaigning in an Order of the Arrow election is not permitted. You are expected to think for yourself; do not let others influence your decision. The election is by secret ballot and no discussion will be permitted, so no one will know for whom you are voting. This important decision about your fellow Scouts is entirely up to you.

Before we announce the names of those eligible and begin the election, are there any questions?

(Answer any questions about the nature and purpose of the Order of the Arrow and the election procedure.)

OA Member B:

The following members of this unit have met the camping and advancement requirements and are eligible for election, as certified by your unit leader. Will you stand and form a line over here (point) as your names are called?

(Point out a place to line up and read the list slowly. Arrange the candidates in a line facing the voters at the place indicated; the line can be semicircular if the eligible group is large. Write each name on the chalkboard or flip chart as called.)

Scouts, you should now answer each of the following questions to yourself, your answers will help you to make the right selections.

OA Member C (or B):

Who in this group is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout? Who is pleasant and easy to get along with? Is he kind and helpful? In all, if you were a Tenderfoot Scout, would you like to hike and camp with him?

Who is cheerful, even when he has many tiresome jobs to do? Who smiles whenever he can? Who obeys promptly and cheerfully? Does he control his temper? If you were at camp with him for several weeks, do you think you would enjoy it?

Who is always ready to give unselfish and wholehearted service to others? Who, in serving others, can forget his own desires and interests? Who has served your unit all year round, faithfully attending your meetings and helping with your service projects? Do you think he will continue his service in the future? If you were his patrol leader, would you depend on him?

In all, ask yourselves: Who in this group, by living up to the Scout Oath, serves your fellow Scouts with such an example of brotherhood and cheerfulness that you look up to him with deep respect and admiration?

OA Member A:

Scouts, on the ballot you will be given, print the first and last names of the candidates who, in your opinion, have set the best examples of brotherhood, cheerfulness and service.

Vote only for those you believe will continue in unselfish service to your unit. If you feel that no one is worthy, turn in an unmarked ballot. If you are new in the unit and do not know the candidates well enough to vote wisely, you may abstain by not turning in a ballot at all, and this will not affect the final result. Those eligible for election also vote, and they may vote for themselves if they feel they are worthy.

The names of the eligible candidates are listed on this chalkboard (flip chart, poster, etc). When you are finished, fold the ballot only once and give the pencil and ballot to any member of the election team.

(Distribute election ballots and pencils.)

(Collect ballots and pencils. Count the votes in private with the unit leader.)

(IF THE UNIT LEADER OR SENIOR YOUTH LEADER ALLOWS, THIS IS A GOOD TIME FOR ONE OF THE TEAM MEMBERS OR THE ADULT ADVISER TO TALK ABOUT UPCOMING EVENTS IN THE CHAPTER AND LODGE).

OA Member A:

(After the ballots are counted and the team is ready to leave.)

Option #2 – Unit Leader wishes to reveal the results at the meeting.
